Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lloyd and Allyce Hall exchanged their wedding vows on December 22, 1933, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 70 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Lloyd and Allyce gave life and love to five children, and the couple now resides near Seneca, South Dakota, on a 160-acre farm, caring for their horse and cats and making daily trips to the senior center; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Lloyd and Allyce have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 22, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
